A Month of Sundays - Barossa Players

in association with Barossa Arts & Convention Centre

Friday 22nd August 8pm, Saturday 23rd August 2pm & 8pm, Sunday 24th August 8pm

A Month of Sundays, by Bob Larbey, directed by Sally Goers Fox, is the story of six people at a nursing home. Two of the residents Cooper and Aylott are old friends and dream of escaping. Aylott is physically sound but with early signs of dementia while Cooper has a wonderful wit, but is physically confined. The young nurse Wilson is cheerful and has to manage Coopers' flirtatious banter. Mrs Baker is a hard working cleaning woman who looks after an ageing father. Cooper's daughter Julia and her husband Peter visit Cooper once a month on Sundays. This play will stir every emotion and leave you with plenty to reflect on.

Paul Hogan - One Night Only Tuesday 26th August, 8.00pm

The hilarious truth and nothing but the truth, will roll into 25 Australian regional centres including Wagga Wagga, Newcastle, Cairns and Alice Springs. Hogan will combine stand up, stories and unseen clips in the two-hour show. The tour kicks off in Albany on July 20 and finishes in Ballarat in August. Hoges' Australian tours come after he and his manager John Cornell settled an eight year dispute with the Australian Taxation Office in 2012. A dazzling combination of stand-up, stories and unseen clips, PAUL HOGAN is live on stage for 2 hours doing what Hoges does best – Entertain!
