BAROSSA PLAYERS

presents

HALPERN & JOHNSON

After last year's successful launch with Educating Rita, Barossa Player's David Underwood is excited about staging their second play, Halpern and Johnson.

This play, directed by Kapunda identity Geoff Sclare, centres on Halpern (Kevin Knott) & Johnson (Martin Wright), two elderly men, who loved the same woman.

Sadly, dear old Flo has recently passed away, but unbeknown to Halpern, his wife has had an on-going, life-long friendship with a former lover, Johnson, who turns up to introduce himself for the first time on the day of Flo's funeral as 'Florence's friend'. It's a lovely premise, two old blokes who seemingly only have one thing in common - the woman they loved. Playwright, Lionel Goldstein, skilfully draws in the audience through to the play's touching conclusion.

Thursday, 11th July at 7.30pm Friday, 12th July at 7.30pm
Saturday, 13th July at 2.00pm and 7.30pm
Adult: $20.00 | U19: $12.00

AUSTRALIAN BALLET

The Dancers Company

Friday 23rd August, at 7:30pm

CLASSICAL TRIPLE BILL

The Dancers Company, the regional touring arm of The Australian Ballet, is on the road again in 2013, visiting South Australia, Victoria, Broken Hill and the Northern Territory with a dazzling triple bill of ballet gems.

SWAN LAKE (ACT III)

Swan Lake is undoubtedly the most beloved ballet of all time, and this traditional version of Act III shows why. Featuring Tchaikovsky's iconic score and the famous Black Swan pas des deux, the heartbreaking love story between Odette and Prince Siegfried is classical ballet at its very best.

PAQUITA

This popular tutu spectacular makes a welcome return to The Dancers Company repertoire after an absence of 22 years. Choreographed by Marius Petipa, Paquita is one of the cornerstones of traditional classical ballet and the perfect opportunity for dancers to display their sparkling technique.

WORLD PREMIERE WORK

Simon Dow, an ex-principal artist of The Australian Ballet and former Artistic Director of West Australian Ballet, will premiere a brand-new work especially for The Dancers Company. The piece will be choreographed in a classical style and feature the young male dancers of the company, showcasing their athleticism and emerging artistry.

CHET BAKER

Saturday 31st August, at 8:00pm

Chet Baker was the 'James Dean of Jazz'. His extraordinary talent with the trumpet and his fragile, captivating vocal style barely hid his offstage drug addiction and frequent brushes with the law.

In this thrilling, dark theatrical performance, David Goldthorpe explores both the haunting, unforgettable music that made Baker famous and the visceral, self-destruction that made him infamous. He takes the audience on a gripping ride through the highs and lows of Baker's life, interspersing the dialogue with expertly arranged Baker classics under the musical direction of Tim Solly and performed with a full live band. The theatre show is followed by a jazz concert featuring Goldthorpe's refreshing take on Baker's unique style of both singing and playing. A complete and satisfying night out for lovers of theatre and jazz alike.
