The Kevin Bloody Wilson Show is not just a concert performance, for most, it's a full on event and an opportunity to tick from your bucket-list a chance to see Australia's most unique International comedy legend.

If we were asked to nominate one individual to best define Australian humour, for most of us, the name Kevin Bloody Wilson immediately springs to mind. His recently released biography 'DILLIGAF, The Life And Rhymes Of Kevin Bloody Wilson' is a raucous, earthy, in depth look at perhaps one of the only Australian Comedians who has not bowed to the pressures of political correctness.

Kevin Bloody Wilson's story is remarkable. He has become a part of Australian Culture, a part of who we are and how we define ourselves. His DILLIGAF attitude is a quality to be envied.

He's been listed in Who's Who, his entire body of work has been preserved for future generations with the National Film and Sound Archive in Canberra and his fan base stretches from Broken Hill to Buckingham Palace.

It's also a known fact that nobody tells Australian stories better than Kevin Bloody Wilson. His peers agree;

"The world's funniest Australian" Billy Connolly

"I love Kev. My favourite is Livin' Next Door To Alan." Paul Hogan

CALENDAR GIRLS

Saturday 12 April 8.00pm

Some ladies will do ANYTHING for a good cause!

When Annie's husband John dies from Leukaemia, she and her best friend Chris resolve to raise money for a new sofa in the local hospital waiting room.

They manage to persuade four fellow Women's Institute members to pose nude with them for an "alternative" calendar. With their modesty spared only by artfully placed cakes, knitting and flower arrangements, and a little help from the hospital porter and an amateur photographer they complete their calendar.

Calendar Girls became the fastest selling play in British theatre history, receiving the What's On Stage Award for Best New Comedy in 2010 and is now a worldwide comedy hit!
